

Esteemed colleague:

The Asociación para la Educación Teológica Hispana/Association for Hispanic Theological Education (AETH) is searching for an intern who will work at the Justo and Catherine González Resource Center located in Decatur, Georgia. AETH exists to stimulate dialogue and collaboration among theological educators, administrators of institutions for ministerial formation and Christian ministerial students. The González Resource Center contributes to that mission by offering services related to the development of theological curriculum and theological pedagogy for instructors of Bible institutes, seminaries, and churches. It also houses the published and unpublished works of the González, with which the intern will be working. We are looking for someone with a passion and interest in being part of this venture, which will provide opportunities to become more familiar with the vast network of Latino/a church leaders related to the work of AETH, and in particular with the work of the Drs. González, after whom the Center is named. You may find more information regarding AETH and the González Center at www.aeth.org.

Beginning in September, the Center will be located at 160 Clairemont Road in Decatur, Georgia. The job is for 20 hours per week, has a flexible schedule, and pays $13.00 per hour. We hope to have the position filled by September, 2021.

We would appreciate your sharing this announcement with any within your network who may be interested in this opportunity, and/or to feel free to apply for it yourself.

If you would like to be considered for the job, please send an expression of interest along with a resume to the Associate Director of the Center, Dr. Ondina E. Gonzalez ( ogonzalez@aeth.org), by August 19, 2021.
