

Job Description: Children's Ministry Director

Position Overview:

The Children's Ministry Director at Central Presbyterian Church plays a pivotal role in nurturing the faith formation of our youngest members. This position involves creating a vibrant and engaging program that fosters fun, spiritual growth, and lasting connections with the church. The Director will lead with vision, adaptability, and a commitment to excellence.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Program Development and Leadership:
 - Develop and implement a comprehensive children's ministry program aligned with the church's mission and values.
 - Innovate and adapt to meet the unique needs of today's children, going beyond traditional approaches.
 - Be a change leader, making necessary adjustments to enhance the program's impact.
 - Continuously educate oneself on best practices within the Presbyterian church and childhood faith practices.
2. Volunteer Engagement:
 - Collaborate with volunteers to ensure the successful execution of children's events.
 - Recognize the vital role volunteers play in the program's success.
 - Foster a supportive and collaborative environment for all team members.
3. Children's Curriculum:
 - Develop and implement a comprehensive children's curriculum for children's church.
 - Design engaging lessons that build a strong foundation in faith and understanding of worship.
 - Ensure children are familiar with essential elements such as the Doxology, the Lord's Prayer, communion, the Advent wreath, etc.

Qualifications:

- Passion for nurturing faith in children within a joyful and inclusive environment.
- Ability to lead change effectively, ensuring the program evolves to meet current needs.
- Commitment to ongoing professional development through continuing education opportunities.
- Experience and/or degree in Education/Christian Education
